

INTERNAL USE ONLY

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Monday - 5 December 1977

Page 3

for
10. (Internal Use Only - CM) LIAISON Roy Werner, Senator John Glenn's (D., Ohio) staffer on the Foreign Relations Committee, called to ask if we could give him information on an American, unnamed, who is influential in Tokyo in exchange visits of Japanese politicians to the U.S. I suggested that he query the State Department, noting that commenting on Americans is a delicate thing for CIA and not within its charter. He said he would ask State.

11. (Unclassified - ELS) LIAISON Discussed [redacted] STAT
[redacted] D/NITC, visit with Jim Fellenbaum, of the Senate Appropriations Committee staff. This week is out. Jim will try to get a new date after he checks Guy McConnell's, of the Committee staff, calendar. STAT

12. (Unclassified - KJS) LIAISON Per Chris May's request I forwarded to Jack Brady, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, the biographic information on [redacted] STAT which Tom Smeeton, of that staff, had requested.

13. (Unclassified - KJS) LIAISON Per Chris May's request I forwarded to Frank Ballance, Staff Director, Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on Foreign Assistance, the two items from Hans Binnendijk, of the Committee staff.

14. (Unclassified - RSG) LIAISON Took a call from Jackie Hess, Researcher, House Select Committee on Assassinations, who inquired about the status of two action items. One: letters requested from former Director of Security, Howard Osborn. [redacted] STAT
[redacted] STAT

15. (Unclassified - RSG) LIAISON In a conversation with Mickey Goldsmith, House Select Committee on Assassinations staff, I indicated that, after checking with Trudy Peterson, of the National Archives, the CIA material contained in the Warren Commission file with the National Archives would be available for courier pick up at National Archives on 7 December. Material will be couriered to the C&R Staff where it will be assembled for review by originating offices and retained for reading by the Committee staffers.